Colored Men, Vote!
The Star is on the run.
The "Kansas City Spirit" is asserting itself with a vengeance in this franchise campaign.
"Coming events cast their shadows before," which means the franchise will carry by 10,000 majority.
Republicans! Stop following the selfish and treacherous leadership of the Star and let us stand in this franchise, fight for the same principles that made our party the greatest in the world—Justice and Right.

The fact that "Marse" Bill Nelson, the Negro boycotter, is against the franchise is enough to line up all loyal black men in support of the measure.
If unionism is forced upon the Met. by defeat of the franchise it is easy to see what will become of the large number of colored men constantly employed by the company.
The summer lull in social functions at Lyric Hall furnishes an excellent opportunity to the management for installing some much needed improvements such as check rooms for ladies' wraps.

Union labor is said to be against the franchise and it is known to be against the Negro. It ought not to be difficult for the colored voter to decide upon which side to take in the election of July 7.

The myriad friends of Prof. Wm. H.
Jones, the veteran teacher of St. Joseph, Mo., will be delighted to hear of his promotion to the principalship of the High School of that city. This is a deserved promotion for a man who stands unquestionably as one of the ablest and most experienced educators of the race in America. And the Sun congratulates the school board of the city of St. Joseph for selecting such a splendid man for the place.

The editor goes to Huntsville, Mo., today to address the Chautauqua conducted by the Rev. Dr. J. Sterling Moore, which continues from July 4 to 8 inclusive. Monday, Dr. J. T. Caston will deliver the address; Tuesday, Mrs. C. R. McDowell of St. Louis, and Wednesday, Mrs. Ida A. Walker of St. Joseph. A large crowd and a good time is expected.

Mr. P. A. Harris, Assistant Secretary, is attending the Y. M. C. A.
Summer School at Lake Geneva, Wisconsin.

Less than $300 is now needed to reach the $17,000 mark when Mr.
Rosenwald will send his check for $25,000.

Mr. J. T. Watkins addresses the men's meeting at the Association rooms next Sunday, July 5. All men are invited.

The running track in the gymnasium has been placed. The gymnasium floor is being laid. Now that the plumbers who have been on a strike because of a difference with the steam-fitters, have returned to work, it is thought that the swimming pool will be piped and walled next week.

ARMOUR AND THE METROPOLITAN.

To The Post:

Does Armour own the controlling interest in the Metropolitan Street Railway company, or what interest does he hold? This seems to be a stumbling block to a great many people who think he owns the controlling interest and for that reason they do not want to vote for the franchise.

W. E. G.

Mr. Armour owns 16 1/3 per cent of the STOCK of the Metropolitan Street Railway company. He holds no bonds, notes or mortgages, according to the books of the company. MR. ARMOUR THEREFORE DOES NOT CONTROL THE COMPANY.

What if he did Colored Men: the Sun asserts without fear of successful contradiction that the Armour interests have been and are now the LARGEST EMPLOYERS of Negro labor in the West—and the Negro is both GRATEFUL and LOYAL to his friends. Would to God there were more men like Armour.

CREWS OVERALL WEDDING.

Probably the most popular and beautiful wedding of the year was the marriage of Miss Olga Overall, the charming and vivacious daughter of Mrs. Martha Overall, 1120 Troost avenue to Mr. Osborne P. Crews, of Chicago, Ill., the oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. H. Crews of this city. The home of the bride was beautifully decorated for the ceremony and the handsome miniature altar was built in the northeast corner of the parlor, where stood the minister, Dr. Wm. H.
Thomas, pastor of Allen Chapel, who performed the beautiful ring ceremony of his church. A beautiful solo entitled "Because," was sung by Miss Genevieve Wilson, after which the bride party entered to the strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding March, played by Miss Mary Woodland. The pretty little ribbon girls who immediately preceded the bride party were Isabelle Fields, Dorothy Johnson, Margaret Thomas and Willa Pulliam.
White little Lanier McMillan bore the wedding ring concealed in a beautiful lily. Next came the groom, tall, handsome, perfectly at ease, the nite best man and bridesmaid, Mr. Raymond Knox and Miss Melody Tomlin, who elicited much comment by their handsome appearance and stately bearing.
Then the bride, upon the arm of Rev.
Dr. Wm. H. Peck, presiding elder of Kansas City district, who gave her away. She was magnificently attired in a gown of white silk lace trimmed with white taffeta, draped over chif-fon. She wore a veil of Duchess lace caught with fillets of the valley and carried a shower bouquet of roses and lilies of the valley in a lily shaped staff. Her traveling gown was a suit of gray broadened silk poplin.
Immediately preceding her was little Grace Conn, the flower girl, who scattered flower leaves profusely before the bride. These young people were the recipients of much social attention from the time of the arrival of the groom from Chicago last Friday until the evening of the wedding. On Saturday night the groom was tendered a delightful stag attended by the representative men of the city at the residence of his uncle, Nelson C.
Crews, and on Sunday morning the happy couple were guests at a three-course breakfast served by Miss Melody Tomlin, the bridesmaid, at her residence, 1022 Virginia, at which those present were Miss Wilmer Hampton, Miss Genevieve Wilson, Mr.
David Crosthwait, Jr., Dr. Paul Crosth-wait, Miss Olga Overall, Mr. Osborne Crews. On Sunday afternoon an automobile party was given in their honor by the bride's mother, composed of Mrs. Elizabeth Anderson, Mr. Chas. G. Lewis of Chicago, Miss Fannie Price, Miss Olga Overall, Mr.
Osborne Crews and Mrs. Martha Overall. On Monday morning at 10:30 a
